LIFE ON LAND

The majority of the land area of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is desert. Thus, sustaining life on land is essential in the Kingdom to preserve existing land use and restore or reverse desertification. The use of land to sustain human life is vital in supporting livelihoods. Prince Sultan University is committed to ensuring its land preservation by implementing its policy on plastic waste reduction and policy on hazardous waste disposal.

PepsiCo and Prince Sultan University activate first student led competition following MoU signing last year

SAUDI ARABIA, 23 March 2023 - Following the memorandum of understanding (MoU) signed in September 2022, PepsiCo, the leading food and beverage company in the region, and Prince Sultan University (PSU) have activated their first phase of student competitions, with winners announced last Monday.

- The MoU signed by both entities activated their first student competition with winners receiving cash prizes worth up to eight thousand Saudi Riyals.
- Through the strategic partnership, PepsiCo and PSU will ensure the campus achieves its target for the Zero Waste Initiative.

Creating an ecosystem around higher education to promote sustainability

PSU is committed to promoting the UN's SDG 2030 agenda as part of its own institutional strategic plan in support of Saudi Arabia's Vision 2030 framework. The Vision 2030 initiative calls on organisations – both private and public – to empower, nurture and inspire young Saudi citizens to fully realise their potential as part of the country's ongoing formative action to combat the climate crisis and its impacts.
